Executive to Stay In Washington During Campaign-Commoner Ends His Tour-Republican Candidate at Lincoln, Neb.

Washington Oct. 1. - President Roosevelt will not reply to the latest letter of William J. Bryan, given out by him Tuesday night at Rock Island, Ill., Secretary Loeb stated Wednesday that the president felt that inasmuch as Mr. Bryan's letter was simply an attack upon him personally there was no reason why he should answer it.

Secretary Loeb Wednesday also made the statement that President Roosevelt had no intention at present of making a speaking tour in behalf of the Republican candidate for the presidency.

Receives Many Invitations.

Many invitations had been received by the president, Mr. Loeb said, but Mr. Roosevelt never has stated that he would take the stump. When asked whether, if the situation took such a turn that the president might consider that making a speaking tour would materially aid the Republican cause, the president in that event would take the stump, Mr. Loeb replied that he might or might not do so, and added that no one could tell what the future would bring forth. Mr. Bryan to the President.

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 1 .- "I have lived in vain if your accusations lost me a single friend," said William J. Bryan in a letter addressed Tuesday to President Roosevelt, replying to that of the president, written Sunday

Reverting to the charges against Gov. Haskell, Mr. Bryan says that the president, in response to his request. did not delgn to suggest a tribunal which could determine those charges, but instead proceeded to pass judgment upon him, and he informs the president that the occupant of that high office cannot deny to the humbles! citizen the right to protect his reputation and vinificate his name in the courts.

Bryan Ends Tour.

Muscatine, Ia., Oct. 1.-Traveling toward Lincoln on the last day of his present tour of more than three weeks. William J. Bryan Wednesday got an ovation here as the train bearing him from Rock Island pulled into the outskirts of the city. He was greeted by the tooting of whistles, the waving of hands from factory windows and a national salute fired by the Muscatine | One of those who brought this fate battery, composed of veterans of the civil war. At the station people swarmed around his car and loudly cheered him. Addressing them briefly, the Democratic candidate scored the Republicans for admitting the existence of great abuses and then not correcting them. They had ignored the laboring man, he said; they had kept up a high protective tariff, had failed to prosecute to any extent the trusts and were afraid of publicity of campaign contributions before election in order to shield those who had been buying legislation by furnishing money to elect men to office. One again he denounced the president for participating in the campaign.

Taft in Bryan's Town.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.-Judge William H. Taft Wednesday began the second week of his campaign through the north and west by an advent into the home town and state of his chief opponent, William J. Bryan. Wednesday afternoon and evening were devoted by the Ohioan to Lincoln, where Mr. Taft made five speeches. Arriving at Lincoln at three o'clock, Mr. Taft's time was completely occupied until bedtime, and no arrangements were made for any exchange of calls between the two candidates. His first speech there was to the machinists in the Burlington shops. He then addresped the students at the state university. He went from the university to the Auditorium to address a women's meeting, presided over by Mrs. Sheldon, wife of the governor. He headed the parade which marched to the capitol grounds, where an openair meeting was held and where Mr. Taft made a short address. The candidate then went to the Auditorium. where he made the principal address of the day. The Taft party remained all night at Lincoln, leaving for the west Thursday night.

Mack Accuses George Sheldon. New York, Oct. 3 .- National Chair man Mack of the Democratic national committee Friday made an attack on the corporation affiliations of George E. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican national committee, charging that Mr. Sheldon was at this time connected with no less than 17 financial companies.

CHICAGOAN ELECTED AT THE NATIONAL CONVENTION IN DENVER.

Suarantee Law Opposed-Proposition to Establish Postal Savings Banks Also Condemned in Resolutions Adopted by the Financiers.

Denver, Col., Oct. 2 .- The thirtyourth annual convention of the merican Bankers' association came o an end Thursday afternoon with the election of George M. Reynolds of hicago, president, and Lewis derson of New York, first vice-presi-

Thirty-eight new members were an ounced and a vice-president repreenting each of the states having repesentatives in the association was amed.

The convention also placed itself quarely on record as against both he proposition to guarantee bank deoslis and that to establish postal savngs banks.

Lively Discussion Arises.

A lively discussion occurred over he report of the federal legislative ommittee opposing these plans. The solution offered by the committee. owever, contained a condemnation of te guarantee law, only, making no neation of the postal savings banks. fight led by Clifton R Breckenrid e f Arkansas was made to include condemnation of postal savings banks in he same resolution.

Former Gov. Myron T. Merrick was he leader in opposition to a substitute ffered by Mr. Breckenridge conemulug both propositions in one esolution. After a parliamentary angle during which several of the telegates were sharply called to order by the president, the Breckenridge substitute was voted down.

An amendment to the resolution vas offered substituting the words "it s a delusion that the tax upon the strong will prevent the fallure of the weak," for section 8 as reported. which read: "It unjustly weakens the strong and unfairly strengthens the weak banks." The amendment was adopted and the report of the comittee with its resolution was then arried without a dissenting voice.

Postal Banks Opposed. Mr. Breckenridge then offered the following resolution, which was also adopted with only two or three dissenting votes: "That the American Banking association condemns as unwise and hurtful all proposals to establish postal savings banks." Nearly two hours were consumed with the reports of vice-presidents from the several states, the consensus of which was that the effects of the recent panic are rapidly passing away throughout the country.

HOTEL EMPLOYE TOLD PRIEST OF BEING OFFERED $2,000.

Wife Submits Affidavit Defending Herself Against Charge of Drunkenness Made by Husband.

New York, Oct. 3 .- That $2,000 had b en offered an employe of the Hotel St. Regis to give false testimony against Mrs. Howard Gould was the substance of an affidavit, purporting to have been made by Rev. Father Joseph G. Murray, which was presented to Justice Giegerich in the supreme court Friday.

The case came up before the jusrice on a motion to strike out certain allegations in Mrs. Gould's complaint in her suit for a separation from her husband, as scandalous and irrelevant. Mrs. Gould's counsel opposed the motion and presented several affidavits in which it was charged that certain witnesses had been hired to testify in favor of Mr. Gould. The affidavit of Tather Murray was one of the papers resented. It declares that Michael H. Doody had told the priest that while he was employed at the Hotel St. Regis, where Mrs. Gould lived, a detective went to him with the proposiion that he "give a proper report of Mrs. Gould's comings and goings at the hotel, the amount of wine sh drank and the names of her visitors, notably those of them that were men."

Another affidavit, made by Maurice olloy, alleges that Molloy was under entract, while custodian of Castle Gould at Port Washington, to treat Mrs. Gould in a contemptuous fashion The lawyer for Mrs. Gould recited how it was alleged that Molloy had gene into the house at on divans and uffed elgarette smoke in Mrs. Gould's face when she ordered him out of the house.

An affidavit submitted by Mrs. Gould in reply to allegations of her husband hat she is addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, says:

"When living in the country and spending most of my time in the open air, I have drunk a cocktail on siting down to luncheon, and generally a glass of white wine with luncheon At dinner, whenever I felt like it, I drank a cocktail and a glass of champagne. We were always accustomed to have wine served at these meals, but that was the extent of my drink ing.
